

Morning Prayer: I Will Surrender

Words & Music: Karen Drucker,
David Roth & Faith Rivera

I just love the creative process, especially when it comes to writing songs. I was asked to be part of a live radio interview with two other wonderful New Thought Artists who I respect and admire: David Roth and Faith Rivera. We were sitting in the waiting room, just hanging out before we were all supposed to be on the air. David took out his computer and typed the first line of a song, came up with a sweet simple melody, then swiveled the computer in front of me. "Here, you write the next line," he said to me. Always up for a challenge, I took a deep breath, came up with a lyric, and then swiveled the computer in front of Faith. She wrote a beautiful line with the word "faith" in it. We had a few minutes left before our interview and we all finished the last line. We laughed at the ease of this whole creative process and wound up singing it on the air. And that was that. However, the melody haunted me and wouldn't let me go. I emailed David and wound up writing the rest of the lyrics with him through email. It has now become one of my favorite songs to sing.

I use it as a prayer to center myself in the early morning before I start my day.

Chorus: I will surrender to my greatest highest good. I will release any fear that blocks my way. For every step I take is taken in pure faith, and I am stronger every moment every day. (2nd time: grateful, 3rd time: kinder.)

My mind is willing and my heart is open wide. I trust my instincts and let Spirit be my guide. I vow to live a life that's real and true and free, as I continue walking in this mystery.

Chorus

There may be walls there may be roadblocks in my way, but I can choose to take a higher path each day. And now I know that what I thought was safe and sound, was only habit and regret that held me down.

Chorus
